THERE is a significance in the vote in the caucus fer the nomination for speaker, which protectionists and sectionalists can neither distort or evade. congress. A Texan is the doorskeeper of the house of representatives, a happy augury, let us hope, for the Texas measures that must get into the house and find favor there before they can read their title clear to success. And Texas will want a good slice from this congress. Galveston will be on hand with her plea for a million or two of money toget deep water; San Antonio and Waco wart federal buildings; the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad wants the right of way through the Indian Territory. All these measures, we trust, will win favor in the house congress. A Texan is the door-keeper we trust, will win favor in the house.

Randall become speaker Mr. Reagan might have whistled for all the showing he would have got in the house, blundering. Ring up the curtain on either on committees or on the floor. MR. BEECHER is surely becoming bucky stars that Carlisle is speaker, converted. He spoke very kindly of that man is Mr. Reagan.

The G., C. & S. F.'s Fxtension.

Those who imagined that the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad would be content with the territory it is now occupying-that it shrank from bolder and more comprehensive policies—now see how wide they were off the mark. The road was simply maturing its Political ethics in that state have not plans, garnering its resources and biding its time. Congress is in session and it will go before that body with a bill that contemplates a grand forward movement, from Fort Worth through the Indian Territory to connection with the 'Frisco road, which, once attained, makes it absolutely independent of the Gould system. To the Lincoln was hardly up to the stand- people of Texas this move is one of member how rapidly the Santa Fe pushed its construction in Texas. Its proposed route runs through a country perhaps as favorable, all things considered, for railroad building, as that portion of Texas it traverses. The question there is no reason to doubt that it will of the general revision of the vorable action upon its application effect the proposed connection by the Christmas of 1884. To Fort worth the movement is one of great importance and value, but we prefer to consider it from a broader standpoint than a mere local one. It is a step full of promise for other cities and sections than Fort Worth. It is gratifying to believe

While the extra session of the legislature is grappling with the fencenting problem, let it not fail to extend the time for redeeming lands sold for taxes. This is a vital question to thousands of poor and honest people. Next year will be one of stringency in money matters and the state can very well afford to grant the tax payers a reasonable measure of relief.

The corporal's guard of newspapers in Texas lately supporting Mr. Randall take their crow with graceful resignation. We warned them, months ago, as the files of the GAZETTE will show, but they would not see the handwriting on the wall. But the fight is over now and there need be no trace of acrimony. Close up the ranks and prepare for the election of a tariff-reform president in 1884.

Texas starts out very well in this congress. A Texan is the door-keeper congress.

In the very nature of things he could not have expected the least favor from the Pennsylvanian. But with Carlisle wielding the gavel there is a showing for Reagan and it is pretty certain that he will have the chairmanship of an important committee. And neither will he have to rise, day after day, in vain endeavors to catch the eyeand recognition of the speaker. If any man has reason to bless his lucky stars that Carlisle is speaker, the text of the speaker is M. Reagan.
